ed the Forest Service lands (Bryants Point for example) where no sanitary lities are provided. Two alternatives were mentioned:

1. [illegible] down the area completely

2. Put in minimal facilities - portable toilets, etc.

He asked for the Committee's opinion as to which course should be taken. sense of the replies was that people would be hard to exclude and when one a large number of people, one has a large number of sanitary problems. s, a minimum number of facilities should be provided as best the budget per- s commensurate with the present problems.
